To God Be The Glory

In That Day

Paul and Barnabas had a disagreement over Barnabas' nephew, Mark. The disagreement became so sharp that these two brothers parted ways. It appears in scripture they may have reconciled. But this we know, when they each dropped this sinful flesh and came into God's presence they were in complete harmony and agreement with one another.

Brethren, none of us want disagreements between our fellow brethren. We especially do not want it to develop to the point that we part company. But we have to face the fact that it does happen between believers. If it does it is sweet consolation to remember that when we drop this sinful flesh and are perfectly conformed to Christ's image in glory none of the things that happened in our flesh will matter. In that day, each brother and sister will be in perfect agreement and perfect conformity as we bow side-by-side and give our gracious God all the praise and all the glory that Christ is our All. May God give us grace to remember that eternal day as we face the trials of this day.

"My Mediation of Him Shall Be Sweet" Psalms 104:34

When you and I first came to Jesus Christ we came to a person, we believed in a person, we trusted a person to save us. Of course we believed his doctrine as he gave us understanding, but his doctrine told us of the person. It's not just the doctrine about him that is sweet but the person the doctrine tells us of is sweet. He is the Father's Well-Beloved and the Well-Beloved of the Church and the Well-Beloved of every believing soul. We love his offices as our Prophet, Priest and King, but we love them because of the person who occupies them. This is where we find the sweetness of it all. All things about Jesus is sweet because he himself is sweet - "My mediation of him shall be sweet." To meditate upon the work of our Redeemer is sweet because he himself is sweet. Christ is sweet to our affections. He is sweet to our understanding. He is sweet to our memory. He is presently sweet. My mediation of him is sweet when I think of the future, for he himself is my hope of eternal bliss - Oh, sweet bliss! O sweet Jesus Oh, his love is sweet - it's the love of God. His blood is sweet - it's the blood of God. His natures are sweet - Jesus the God-man. Meditate my heart upon Jesus. Fill yourself with himself and the sweetness of himself will fill you.

“And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.” (Mark 16:15).

God’s preachers preach the message of God’s grace in Christ Jesus to undeserving sinners, the Gospel, because they’re obedient servants, (Mark 16:15). They preach because they’re convinced of God that there’s no other message that the Holy Spirit shall bless to the salvation of a sinner except that Gospel (Rom. 1:16). And they know, by Divine revelation, that there’s a remnant according to the electing grace (Rom. 11:5); that shall hear with new ears, see with new eyes and believe on Christ with a new heart, (Ezek. 36:26-28), because they are born from above (John 6:37) .

Come to Christ

Many people feel the need to improve their lives before coming to Christ. They believe it is necessary to stop certain sins, or get better in various areas before they can attend church services.

Christ told us “If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.” (Joh 7:37) And “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” (Mat 11:28). Isaiah prophesied “Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.”

ANY, ALL, and EVERY ONE; come thirsty, tired and burdened. Come to Christ now, without any payment of your works, and enter into true rest!
