CLOSING HYMN #70

THE END OF ARGUING

Men have long loved to argue about Biblical truths. I freely confess that I avoid those arguments like the plague. There is no benefit in debating God’s truth with an unregenerate person. It is impossible to prove the existence of light to a blind person. The best thing we can do for lost souls is preach the gospel to them and leave them alone with God. All argument will stop when Christ is pleased to reveal Himself because when Christ is revealed there is submission to Christ. No one will ever argue about man’s freewill, God’s crown right to elect a people to save, Christ’s limited atonement for His elect people, or the eternal salvation of God’s elect if they have submitted themselves to Christ the King. The people still arguing against those truths are people who have not submitted to Christ.

“All Things”

Romans 8:28

These two words are used together more than 200 times in the Word of God. “All things” is an all-inclusive, universal term. “All things” means “all things”. God does not say “all things” when he means “some things”, or “most things”. When God says, “all things”, he means “all things”. This is what the Lord God tells us about “all things”.

“All things are of God” (2 Corinthians 5:18). — Everything that comes to pass in time was purposed and predestinated by God in eternity (Ephesians 1:11), and is brought to pass in time by God’s sovereign providence (Isaiah 45:7; Romans 11:36). There are no accidents in this world. There is no such thing as “luck,” “fate,” or “chance.” “All things are of God.” This is especially true with reference to salvation. “Salvation is of the Lord!” He planned it. He purchased it. He performs it. He preserves it. He perfects it. And he shall have all the praise for it!

“All things are for your sakes” (2 Corinthians 4:15). — If you are a believer, one of God’s elect, everything that ever has been, is, or shall be has been ordained and is brought to pass by God for your eternal, spiritual good (Romans 8:28). Nothing ever has happened, shall happen, or can happen that will harm you (Proverbs 12:21). Divine predestination and divine sovereignty are the security of the believer’s soul.

“All things are yours” (1 Corinthians 3:21). — All things are yours by God’s design. All things are yours to use for your own comfort and pleasure as you seek to glorify God in all things. All things are yours if you are Christ’s, for Christ is the Maker and Possessor of all things.

“For there is no respect of persons with God.”
Romans 2:11

Fourteen times in the Holy Scriptures we are reminded God is no respecter of persons, and we should not be either. If He said it once, that is good enough. But hearing this from the Father, from the Son, and from the Holy Spirit (through His prophets and ministers) it is something that should strongly be heeded!

What does that mean, no respecter of persons? God does not care if you are rich or poor, male or female, Jew or Gentile, educated or uneducated, or what you have done for Him: how many idols you have destroyed, how many hungry you have fed, how many people you baptized, or how many souls you have won. Who we are or what we can offer of our own hands does not please the Father. He has no pleasure in mans sacrifices. (Isa 1v11, Psa 51v16)

How then can we approach God? Only through the merit, righteousness, and completed work of Christ! It was not Abel’s physical offering that was accepted. Abel’s looking to Christ, the Lamb Slain, was accepted by the Father. (Heb 11v4)

Twice, the heavens opened and declared “This is my Son, IN WHOM I am well pleased” (Luke 3v22, Matt 17v5). Sinner, do not attempt to approach God outside of Christ. The Father will not have respect for you. The only hope we have from eternal condemnation is IN CHRIST!
