Good Stewards

The Lord has made us stewards of His grace and of the gifts of His grace, whether they be spiritual or material. Let us be good stewards, putting to use for His glory and the happiness of others all that passes through our hearts and hands. Someone may say, “But I am not talented nor rich.” We are responsible on a smaller scale for what God has put into our hands. What I possess (little or much) belongs to Him, and I resolve to use it for His glory and the good of others!

- Henry Mahan

Prayer is not wrestling with God, trying to get Him to grant mercy and grace, which He is reluctant to bestow. Prayer is bowing before the God of all grace and laying hold of His willingness to freely bestow the mercy and grace we need.

Fear God Not Things

The Lord said, “I kill, and I make alive; I wound and I heal”
(Deut. 32:39).

Things don't kill us God does. God sends things. Whether cancer, car wreck, heart disease, guns, knives, swords...these things are the means which God uses to take us. But things don't kill us. We are not to fear things but fear the Lord. We are not to live in fear of things or people but the Lord. Let us not act foolishly, but let us act on faith. Let us not put ourselves in harm's way, but let us put our trust in the Lord. This is not fatalism it is faith.

But what if we do contract a deadly disease or virus? What if it kills us? Well, it didn't kill us, the Lord did, and in reality, it was the God-sent, merciful means to send us to Glory where all our fears will be gone forever!

Fact is, we “walk through the valley of the shadow of death” all the time. Disease and death are all around us. But what does the Psalm say? “I will fear no evil for Thou art with me.”

Knowing the Time
Romans 13:11-12

Brethren, as we find ourselves in uncertain times let us remember the promises of our Lord and God who said “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me” (Hebrews 13:5-6). It is in times like these that the promises of our God take on a fresh meaning to us. Let us remember that these faithful promises reveal the hope of every believer, who is Jesus Christ our righteousness. On one hand, it is very easy to take this time to relax, do little and wait until it somehow all goes back to a level of normalcy. On the other hand we may invest all our time on preparing and protecting self that we forget whose we are and who we serve. Our days here are for serving our Lord and brethren. Yielding your members, means to “stand at the ready” how you may be a help and encouragement to others (Romans 6:13). Pray and watch remembering the Lord is at hand and he is our sanctification. And “seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Matt 6:33).

Do Not Put The Cart Before The Horse

I heard a preacher the other day telling lost sinners that if they would believe the gospel and trust Christ, that God would give them the new birth and a new heart. I thought that was rather strange since one who believes is already forgiven, reconciled, righteous and justified (Romans 4:1-8; 5:1; 10:4; Ephesians 1:13, 14). I strongly suspect that he “got the cart before the horse!” If I can comply with all the gospel requirements without the new birth and new heart, perhaps I don’t need them very badly anyway!
