CLOSING HYMN #318

I Need Thee Every Hour

---

How can a “professing believer” claim to believe that the Lord Jesus Christ “is all, and in all,” (Colossians 3:11) and then fail to trust Him to be ALL they need to be reconciled to God? If He “is all, and in all” as the believer’s Savior, then He is most certainly ALL that they need to be saved.

The Importance Of The Resurrection Of Christ

“But God raised Him from the dead” -Acts 13v30

How important is the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ? It is all important because without His glorious resurrection and ascension to the throne of God we have no salvation from our sins (Acts 4:12; 1 Cor. 15:13-17), no Mediator between God and men (1 Tim. 2:5), no Advocate with the Father (1 John 2:1-2) and no pardon from all sin (Heb. 1:3; Rom. 4:25).

In all the preaching through the books of Acts the Apostles always declared the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ as Paul did here in Acts chapter 13. His resurrection declares unto us the validity of the gospel; without it we have no good news (Rom. 6:23; Gal. 4:4-6).

- 1). His resurrection is the complete and clear declaration that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the only begotten of the Father (John 1:1-14; Rom. 1:1-4).
- 2). His resurrection is a full declaration of the complete success of His atonement and redemption from sin (Eph. 5:25-27; Heb. 1:3; Heb. 9:11-12; 9:26; 1 Peter 1:18-20).
- 3). His resurrection is the guarantee of covenant mercies of the Lord Jesus Christ, that are certain and sure to all the elect of God (Acts 13:34, 48; 2 Sam. 23:4; Isa. 55:1-7; 2 Thes. 2:13-14).
- 4). His resurrection is the declaration of His absolute Lordship in heaven and earth (Acts 2:32-36; Rom. 14:9) “For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.”
- 5). His resurrection is the guarantee of our repentance, faith and our resurrection from the grave (Acts 5:29-32; John 14:19; Rev. 1:18). True faith and true repentance are the sovereign gifts of God given to us upon the ground of His resurrection victory over sin, death, hell, the grave, the law and the devil (1 Cor. 15:57; Col. 2:13-15).

The difference in no faith, weak faith, and strong faith.

“And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.”

-Luke 17v5

When a person has no faith at all, he looks to his own flesh for all of his confidence before God. He believes that God will be satisfied with him by what he sees in himself - his actions, his words, and his thoughts.

When a person has weak faith, he looks to himself for a little bit of confidence before God. He knows that he will never be able to satisfy God outside of the blood of Christ, but something in him still thinks that he must produce good actions, good words, and good thoughts along with Christ's blood before God will accept him.

When a person is strong in faith, he does not look to himself at all. He knows that he can have absolutely no confidence in his flesh. When it comes to God accepting him, all of his hope is in Christ's actions, Christ's words, and Christ's thoughts. He firmly believes that “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief!” And “He is made unto (me) wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption.” Christ is all I need!

In summary...

No faith - has all confidence in the flesh.

Weak faith - has a little confidence in the flesh.

Strong faith - has NO confidence in the flesh at all!
