Christ Keeps Us Night And Day!

“Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you.”

- 1 Peter 5:7

BELOVED, have you ever found yourself awakened during the night? I came across this precious verse in God’s only holy book, the Bible. What comfort it affords God’s people, speaking of the care of our LORD for His bride, those He came to save, it declares: “I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.” (Isaiah 27:3). Beloved remember, when you awake, He keeps us every moment, both night and day! AMEN!

- Josph Murphy (New Caney, TX)

How Can We Know?

How can we know whether we have gone, not only from ignorance to knowledge, but also from knowledge to submission? It is primarily revealed in this: we cease from establishing our own righteousness before God. We glory in nothing other than Christ’s cross, soothe our conscience with nothing but His blood, and rest our hope for favor with God on nothing other than Christ’s acceptance before the Father.

- Joe Terrell

God's saints are constantly reminded in the preaching of the gospel that “By strength of hand the LORD brought you out” (Ex 13: 3). The whole of elect Israel’s sanctification and redemption from Egypt was the work of God alone. Throughout the wilderness the Lord alone kept the elect sanctified unto Christ and delivered them into Canaan! So it is with us! From darkness into light, from the first step to the last, from this life into glory, God saints shall have one boast, “by strength of hand the LORD brought [us] out.”

- Clay Curtis (Ewing, NJ)

By God’s grace I am thankful that I am thankful. There was a time that I was not thankful to God for anything. 1Thessalonians 5:18 “In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.”

- John Chapman (Spring Lake, NC)

The law was not given as a remedy for man’s problem, but as a reminder that we have a problem and need a remedy. It points us not to any prescribed performance on our part, but to a person, the one and only remedy – Christ Jesus our Lord.

- Carroll Poole (Hendersonville, NC)

We have far too much anxiety, care and fear; far too much concern for earthly material things for a people to whom the Lord has said, “Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on.”

- Henry Mahan

Jonah said, “Salvation is of the Lord.” (Jonah 2:9) If that statement is true, and it is, then you did not make a decision to follow Jesus. You did not give your heart to Him, nor did you make Him Lord of your life. The simple truth is, if salvation is of the Lord, then it is not of man. Our salvation not only reveals who God is, but it also reveals who and what we are. We ARE nothing, we HAVE nothing and we can DO nothing to save ourselves. Why? Because “Salvation is of the Lord.” If we ARE nothing but sin, we will die in that sin because God will by no means clear the guilty. (Exodus 34:7) If we HAVE no righteousness that God will accept, we will die in our sin, “for our righteousness must be perfect to be accepted.” (Leviticus 22:21) If we can DO nothing to obtain the perfect righteousness that we need to be accepted, then we remain dead in our trespasses and sin. Aren’t you glad that salvation is of the Lord?

- David Eddmenson (Madisonville, KY)
