CLOSING HYMN

Blessed Assurance # 255

H.T. Mahan once said: "Be yourself, but don't violate the gospel". If what we believe does not influence the actions or affections, we are on a dangerous path. We may have a form of godliness but truly are denying the power thereof. The child of God does not only think about God and His Free Sovereign Grace on Sundays nor does he live like the world then live like a saint on the days we meet together. No, this grace, this God, this doctrine we hold so closely, so dearly; is the supreme life altering power from above. May He give more grace to needy sinners such as we are! Thank God, we are not what we once were (for by grace are ye saved), even if we are a bruised reed or a piece of smoking flax.

- Drew Dietz (Jackson, MO)

When you become just nothing, when you have no good feelings, no good desires, or anything you can bring to Christ – when you come to Christ, not with a broken heart, but for a broken heart, then He will receive you, then you will be the kind of man that Christ came to save.

- Milton Howard (Ball, LA)

A dear friend recently told me he could not trust himself. I responded, "Me neither. And we shouldn't".

The Lord does not put His trust in His people -

Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints... - Job 15v15

The Lord first, and forever, trusts Christ -

That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. – Eph 1v12

With His Word being so clear, how much more should we never look to ourselves but lean completely and continually on Christ our Lord? To truly do so is God-like.

When we were under the law, we were not trying to keep the law and just falling short. We were not doing a "good thing", but couldn't hang in there so Jesus came to help us out by taking the law on himself. NO! We were actively and willfully refusing the Lord Jesus Christ by attempting to keep the law. We were in utter rebellion to God, to His grace, and to His salvation in Christ. Effectively spitting in His face.

That is what we were saved from. Not just the legality, restriction, and constraint of a law we would not and could not keep - we were saved from our purposed, willful rejection of Christ and the work He finished for His people. [of sin, because they believe not on me]

- KBT

Here are some things I truly desire:

- 1) I want to know The Lord Jesus Christ!
- 2) I want to serve my Lord!
- 3) I want to be a blessing, not look to receive one for myself!
- 4) I want to preach the Gospel of Christ!
- 5) I want you to hear it, believe it, know Christ, love Him, have communion with Him, and praise Him!

These are not selfish things- they honor and glorify our Lord!

PEACE

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

- John 14:27

There is an old friend of mine from the seventies that still says “Goodbye” or ends a conversation with the word “Peace.” Those of you my age and older, know that was a “seventies thing.” But peace is not something that my old friend or any of us can give. If we ever see that Christ alone is the only One who can put our sin away, it is then that we discover that it is in Him alone that we find true peace. Christ is able to leave a sinner with the peace of God which passes all understanding, because He worked out a perfect righteousness for us, and God is now appeased and satisfied with us. It is that peace that comes only by being in unbroken communion, perfect harmony and eternal fellowship with God. Only Christ Jesus, the only perfect and sinless man to ever live, has that peace and only He can leave it and give it to us. It is here that I find one more reason why the Lord Jesus Christ is this sinner’s everything. I need that which only He has and only He can leave and give. I need peace and I need Christ.

“But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.”
