As To The Lord

And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

- Col 3v23-24

If we work for ourselves, we will only find disappointment.

If we work for others, we will someday be a disappointment.

If we work “as to the Lord”, we will never be disappointed; even in what we call “failure”. Why? For we served the Lord Christ, and it is HIS will being completed. Part of the blessing provided to God’s servants – is to serve. No matter the result.

- KBT

There is one glaring thing that believers and unbelievers have in common. They both want THEIR righteousness to be exalted. For the unbeliever, it is something they have produced by their Will, their Works, or their Wisdom. For the child of God, it is Christ, who alone is ALL their wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption.

- Greg Elmquist (Apopka, FL)

“Christ is our peace”

Below is an excerpt from a message recently preached at Iglesia Bautista Emanuel in Yucatan, Mexico.

“Brethren, Christ is our peace. Christ is our peace. How precious. A peace that the world cannot take away. A peace that no one can take away. The world and no one can take away this peace that the children of God have. That peace is not the peace of the world. That peace is Christ himself formed in us. For this reason, nothing and no one can take away the peace that God has placed in our hearts. That peace helps us to go through the valley of trials in our lives. We all have to go through the valley of trials, the waters of trials, the fire of trials. The Lord has promised us, the Lord promises us that He will be with us when we go through that valley of trials. I am with you every day. My peace will be in you. I will be with you, and my peace will be in you. And in the midst of the trials, we will have peace and comfort when we go through these trials. It is the difference that the children of God have compared to those who are not children of God. It is the difference. We have the promise of God's blessings in our favor. And they are ours by inheritance. They are ours by inheritance. All the blessings that Christ obtained on the cross of Calvary are already ours. They belong to us as an inheritance from our Lord Jesus Christ for all of us who are trusting in Him.”

- José Dzúl (Tekal de Venegas, Yucatan, Mexico)

My Present Visitation

I cannot boast of any great effects produced by the journey, and by change of air. If my hoarseness abates, my cough comes on with redoubled violence; and if my cough grows favourable, the hoarseness returns. But welcome, ten thousand times welcome, the whole will of God. I trust, His Spirit has begun to render me passive in His blessed hand, and to turn me as clay to the seal. I am enabled to be more than resigned: I am thankful for His every dispensation, knowing them to be all ordered in faithfulness and love.

I was unable to preach, while at Salisbury; and begin to apprehend, that I must not attempt to preach at my own church, here next Sunday. But though such absolute uselessness is the most afflictive part of my present visitation; yet even this I can leave with God my Saviour, who is the governing head of His family, both in heaven and earth, and orders all things well.”

- Augustus Toplady (1740 – 1778)

Take heed of drowsiness in hearing; drowsiness shows much irreverence. How lively are many when they are about the world, but in the worship of God how drowsy. If the preaching of the Word, is not the bread of life broken to you; will a man fall asleep at his food?

The more vile we are in our own eyes, the more precious Christ will be to us!
